Excepted Position Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20030070

OPEN: 06/09/03

CLOSE: 08/18/2003

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

Individuals wishing to apply to the Temporary or IPA position see vacancy announcement number E20030071-Rotator.

POSITION VACANT: Physical Science Administrator AD-1301-04. Annual salary ranges from $81,602 to $127,168.

LOCATION: Office of the Director, Office of Polar Programs, Antarctic Sciences Section.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the Merit Promotion Plan described in NSF Manual 14 (PER II-100).

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources.

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: This position is that of Program Manager for Antarctic Geology and Geophysics in the Antarctic Sciences Section of the Office of Polar Programs. This position is responsible for the management and planning of the Antarctic Geology and Geophysics (AG&G) research programs working with U.S. institutions and scientists, as well as those in other nations. Additional duties and responsibilities include the following:

- Recommends award of funds and field support for research after appropriate project review and with appropriate regard for program balance.
- Reviews supported projects and is responsible for the selection of reviewers and panelists.
- Oversees NSF-funded Antarctic science programs in a broad range of AG&G sub-disciplines, including, as appropriate, grantee development of specialized instrumentation prior to its movement to Antarctica.
- Evaluates the utilization of scientific and logistical resources for AG&G research.
- Develops and establishes long-range program goals and annual program plans for AG&G research.
- Works with the Antarctic Research Support Manager and the Antarctic Ship Operations Manager to plan and implement science projects requiring significant logistical resources.
- Advises the Director, Office of Polar Programs, through the Head, Antarctic Sciences Section, on programs of international exchange and cooperation in Antarctic Geology & Geophysics.
- Serves, when needed, as the National Science Foundation Representative in Antarctica.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in geological or solid earth geophysical sciences, preferably with knowledge of Antarctic geosciences. In addition, at least six years of research, research administration, and/or managerial experience (especially field programs) in the areas previously mentioned. Incumbent must be able to pass a physical examination according to standards used for USAP medical/dental screening for travel to Antarctica.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Broad knowledge and understanding of scientific principles and theories applicable to geological and solid earth geophysical sciences.
2. Ability to recognize and formulate programmatic plans that respond to emerging areas of research in geology and solid earth geophysics.
3. Ability to organize, implement, and manage an externally reviewed proposal-driven grants program, allocating resources to meet a spectrum of program goals.
4. Ability to interact effectively with members of the scientific community and other funding agencies, representative of foreign national Antarctic programs, and peers, in order to present, advocate and advance program goals.
5. Ability to oversee planning and implementation of complex geological and solid earth geophysical projects in a variety of remote field situations, and the ability to deal effectively with all US Antarctic Program research projects while serving as the NSF Science Representative in Antarctica.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
