OPEN: 07/28/05

CLOSE: 08/18/05

THIS POSITION WILL BE FILLED ON A ONE OR TWO YEAR TEMPORARY BASIS.

POSITION VACANT: Science Education Analyst (Assistant Program Director), AD-1701-2. Annual salary ranges from $52,468 to $97,213.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Science Education Analyst (Assistant Program Director), AD-1701-2.

LOCATION: Directorate for Education and Human Resources, Division of Elementary, Secondary and Informal Education (ESIE), National Science Foundation, Arlington, VA.

RELOCATION: Expenses will be paid.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The major responsibilities of this position include special analyses, as well as project/portfolio reviews for Division programs, especially the Instructional Materials Development and Informal Science Education programs; assisting in preparation of the Division's response to the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA), including identification of exemplary projects and interactions with Principle Investigators to document fully their success; development of content for ESIE's web site, including notification of NSF-supported products (e.g., publications, curricula, exhibits, media events).

The person selected for this position conducts analyses of Division programs and coordinates information management. The person is expected to make judgments that demonstrate an understanding of ESIE programs and funded project portfolios. The person must be sufficiently knowledgeable about science and/or mathematics within formal and informal education contexts so as to be able to participate in assessments of programs/projects that show potential to improve science education. Work includes determining information requirements to meet new and increasing reporting requirements, as well as developing and implementing plans to meet GPRA and GPRA-related reporting requirements; preparing program oversight information required for performance of Committee of Visitor (COV) activities; overseeing and coordinating compilation of summary statistics for the assessment of program functions; developing indicators of accomplishment for Division goals and critical achievements, and evaluating Division performance on those indicators; advising and assisting ESIE Program Officers in the conduct of their work; and compiling/analyzing data and preparing reports for ESIE management and program staff.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must have a Masters degree in science, technology, engineering, or mathematics (STEM) or in STEM education, plus a minimum of two years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position; OR a Ph.D. in science, technology, engineering or mathematics (STEM) or in STEM education OR equivalent experience.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Knowledge and understanding of issues, practices, and trends in elementary, secondary, and informal science education.
2. Demonstrated ability to assess varying information needs of disciplinary, education, and professional communities and to effectively present information and advocate program policies, plans, as well as program and Agency contributions to K-12 and informal science education nationally.
3. Knowledge and skill in the use of quantitative and qualitative methods in order to gather, assemble, and analyze facts, draw conclusions, and make recommendations concerning information and knowledge management.
4. Demonstrated skill in analytical and technical writing which evidence the ability to perform inquiry into a wide range of significant issues and make recommendations and decisions based on findings.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
