Annual salary ranges from $77,353 to $142,449.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Attorney-Advisor (General)/Counsel to the Inspector General, AD-905-3/4.

LOCATION: Office of the Inspector General, Arlington, VA.

RELOCATION: Expenses will NOT be paid.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is excluded from the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the Merit Promotion Plan described in NSF Manual 14 (PER II-100).

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The incumbent of this position serves as Counsel to the Inspector General (IG) and, in that capacity, is responsible for providing the IG and staff of auditors and criminal investigators with policy advice, and with expert legal counsel and services needed to carry out the statutory responsibilities imposed by the Inspector General Act of 1978, 5 U.S.C. App. I., as amended.

In carrying out these statutory responsibilities, the Office of Inspector General (OIG), has a major impact on Foundation programs and operations. The IG and professional staff are responsible for (1) conducting and supervising audits and investigations relating to the programs and operations of the Foundation; (2) providing leadership and coordination, and recommending policies for activities designed (i) to promote economy, efficiency and effectiveness in the administration of, and (ii) to prevent and detect fraud and abuse in, National Science Foundation (NSF) programs and operations; and (3) providing a means for keeping the Director, NSF, the National Science Board, and the Congress fully and currently informed about problems and deficiencies relating to the administration of such activities and the necessity for and progress of corrective action.

In this regard, the incumbent, working under the supervision of the Inspector General, is accountable for ensuring a successful legal program that supports OIG audits, investigations, and other activities. In so doing, the incumbent engages in important policymaking determinations that significantly affect OIG operations, the Foundation, and members of the public. The incumbent's responsibilities include liaison activities with high-level program officials, the Justice Department and other law enforcement agencies, and the Congress. The incumbent's work requires sound judgment and experience, discretion, and broad knowledge of Criminal, Federal Administrative, Employment, Procurement, and Federal Appropriations law, Federal policy, and OIG objectives.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Education: Applicants must have a J.D. degree from a school of law accredited by the American Bar Association. Bar Membership: Active bar membership of a State, Territory of the United States, or the District of Columbia. Specialized Experience: For the AD-3 level, at least 4 years of professional legal experience in Criminal, Federal Administrative, Employment, Procurement, and/or Federal Appropriations law. For the AD-4 level, six years of professional legal experience in Criminal, Federal Administrative, Employment, Procurement, and/or Federal Appropriations law. General Experience: Demonstrated ability to (1) lead, supervise, and coordinate the work of other staff; (2) function as a team player; (3) conduct effective interviews; (4) provide legal guidance to colleagues and senior officials; (5) deliver well-organized briefings and presentations to a variety of audiences; and (6) serve as an agency liaison or representative to other organizations.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Ability to draw conclusions about facts based on appropriate investigative effort, legal research, and legal analysis to provide sound and comprehensive advice to lawyers and non-lawyers regarding criminal, civil, and administrative investigations.
2. Ability to draw conclusions about facts based on appropriate investigative effort, legal research, and legal analysis to provide sound and comprehensive advice to lawyers and non-lawyers regarding complex audits of internal controls, management operations, and other aspects of agency programs, and/or administrative procedures, such as personnel actions, ethics-related matters, and contracts.
3. Ability to prepare and make persuasive arguments, negotiate with parties representing competing interests, and mediate disputes under sometimes contentious circumstances.
4. Ability to write in a manner that is logical, clear, concise, and easily understood by non-lawyers.
5. Experience in providing legal guidance and policy recommendations to senior officials and colleagues based on interpreting policies, regulations, and legislative histories.
6. Knowledge of and experience with the principles underlying public policy, organizational management, grant-making programs, and/or scientific research.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.
