POSITION VACANT: Science Writer-Editor, AD-101-02 Annual salary ranges from $54,272 to $100,554

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Science Writer-Editor, AD-101-02

LOCATION: Directorate of Engineering, Office of the Assistant Director, Arlington, VA.

RELOCATION: Expenses will NOT be paid.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: NSF-Wide

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

This position is located in the Office of the Assistant Director for Engineering. The Directorate for Engineering is responsible for programs that strengthen the capability of engineering, its knowledge bases and systems, its institutions, and its human and physical resources, to contribute to the Nation's prosperity, security, and quality of life. It does this by supporting programs and activities that foster innovation, creativity, and excellence in engineering education, fundamental research, and knowledge integration and by promoting the natural synergy between these elements.

The incumbent will initiate, create, write and edit materials on complicated engineering and scientific subjects. The incumbent will use discretion, science knowledge, and writing skill to, 1) interpret complex research activities and results to assure complete understanding of the subject; 2) choose language appropriate for the target audience; and, 3) analyze complex science facts, and research findings. S/he must exercise discretion, and sound judgment to handle sensitive subjects to avoid misinterpretation of research goals or results. To ensure completeness and accuracy of information, the individual will conduct interviews with the Directorate Division Directors, Program Directors as well as cross directorate program resources.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Engineering or Social Science or equivalent experience or a Master's degree in Engineering or Social Science or equivalent experience, plus a minimum of two years of research experience, research administration, and/or managerial experience related to the position.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Ability to initiate, create, write and edit materials on complicated engineering and scientific subjects.
2. Skill in researching program activities and trends in research education.
3. Ability to interpret complex research activities and results.
4. Skill in interviewing individuals at all levels on all aspects of research and education in engineering in order to obtain information necessary to write and edit scientific material.
5. Ability to represent high level government officials at meetings and conferences.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
