NSF.gov hosts a range of guidance to assist awardees with managing NSF-funded awards

NSF Resources

- ▶ Proposal & Award Policies and Procedures Guide (PAPPG) – comprised of the Grant Proposal Guide (GPG), which documents NSF's proposal preparation and submission guidelines, and the Award & Administration Guide (AAG), which contains guidance on managing and monitoring awards and the administration of grants and cooperative agreements. The PAPPG implements 2 CFR § 200 for NSF.
- ▶ Prospective New Awardee Guide (PNAG) – highlights the accountability requirements associated with federal awards and contains information to assist in preparing the documents NSF requires to conduct pre-award administrative and financial reviews.
- ▶ Uniform Guidance, NSF Implementation Webinar – presents changes in NSF policy with the implementation of the Uniform Guidance. Slides from the presentation are also available. The presenter is Jean Feldman, Head of the NSF Policy Office.
- ▶ About Award Cash Management Service (ACM$) – provides information on how to use the NSF ACM$ system for grant-by-grant award payments and post-award financial processes.

Key NSF Divisions, Offices, and Branches

- ▶ Division of Financial Management (DFM) – provides financial services to the NSF research community (NSF staff, grantees, and vendors).
- ▶ Division of Grants and Agreements (DGA) – processes and issues award agreements. DGA also conducts business, financial, and award administrative reviews to ensure awardee and grant compliance. DGA Grants & Agreements Officers can assist with grant-specific questions.
- ▶ DIAS/Cost Analysis and Audit Resolution (CAAR) Branch – performs cost analyses, resolves audit findings pertaining to NSF awards, and conducts various award monitoring activities that provide business assistance to awardees.
- ▶ DIAS/Policy Office – develops and issues proposal and award policy for the NSF programs, leads outreach efforts, and assists awardees with policy-related questions.
- ▶ DACS/Cooperative Support Branch (CSB) – carries out the negotiation, award, administration, monitoring, and oversight of complex cooperative agreements for large facilities.

Resources external to NSF also provide guidance for grants management and federal compliance
