

Homeland Security

Research Performance Program Report (RPPR) Implementation Plan

Revised as of March 31, 2015

In accordance with the April 21, 2010 memorandum to the heads of executive departments and agencies from the Office of Management and Budget and Office of Science and Technology Policy, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) hereby provides its revised implementation plan for the Research Performance Progress Report (RPPR).

The DHS Financial Assistance Policy and Oversight Office (FAPO) will work collaboratively with DHS Component program and awarding offices that administer research awards to implement the RPPR as soon as possible, but not later than the end of fiscal year 2016.