Navigating the New Arctic Webinar Series

Navigating the New Arctic (NNA) is one of the National Science Foundation's 10 Big Ideas. A new solicitation is requesting proposals that bring together diverse disciplinary perspectives to support convergence research and encourages new researchers and those already working in the Arctic to work together at the intersection of natural, social, and built systems. Join one of our webinars with NSF Program Officers leading the NNA initiative to learn more about NNA. Each Webinar session will begin with a short presentation followed by a Q&A with the program officers. NNA Solicitation 19-511 is online at <https://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2019/nsf19511/nsf19511.htm> and the FAQs for the solicitation are at <https://www.nsf.gov/pubs/2019/nsf19017/nsf19017.jsp>. Please make sure to review these documents before joining a webinar session.

The latest NNA updates are at <https://www.nsf.gov/geo/opp/arctic/nna/index.jsp> For inquiries not addressed by the webinar or FAQ, contact us at nna@nsf.gov; see below for tech support on the webinars.
