

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program (NSDTP)

A Multi-disciplinary Approach to Suspension and Debarment Training

George Hurst

Chief, Financial Fraud Institute
Investigative Operations Division

(912) 280-5423

George.Hurst@dhs.gov

Homeland
Security

Federal Law Enforcement
Training Center

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- Developed by FLETC as an Advanced Program at the request of the ISDC Chair, Bob Muenier, in 2004
- Developed with assistance of several S & D officials and attorneys

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- 3 day program
- Began in 2005
- Trained approximately 410 students since 2005

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- Multi-disciplinary Approach:
  - This program is designed for:
    - Agents
    - Non-Criminal Investigators
    - Analysts
    - Auditors
    - Agency Attorneys/AUSAs
    - Suspension and Debarment Officials
    - Other related government employees

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- Multi-disciplinary Approach:
  - This program is taught by:
    - FLETC Instructors
    - (Agents)
    - Suspension and Debarment Officials
    - Suspension and Debarment Attorneys

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- Multi-disciplinary Approach:
  - This program addresses Suspension and Debarment from the
    - Suspension and Debarment Official perspective
    - Attorney perspective
    - Agent perspective

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- Multi-disciplinary Approach:
  - This program incorporates practical exercises and case studies that address issues related to:
    - Suspension and Debarment Officials
    - Attorneys
    - Agents

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

- Multi-disciplinary Approach:
  - Our approach is comprehensive and the interaction of the many disciplines represented by the varied backgrounds and functions of the participants is invaluable

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program Fiscal Year 2012 Schedule:

- At FLETC (Glynco, GA):
January 10-12, 2012
- Houston, TX:
March 13-15, 2012
- Washington, D.C.:
July 31-August 2, 2012

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

With the emphasis on Suspension and Debarment and the apparent high demand for this program, why only 3 scheduled?

Agency Projections

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program

Agency Projections of number of students for FY12:

IG community: 5

Other agencies: 0

State and Local: 1

6 total

Homeland
Security

Discussion and Questions

Homeland
Security

National Suspension and Debarment Training Program (NSDTP)

*A Multi-disciplinary Approach to Suspension
and Debarment Training*

George Hurst

Chief, Financial Fraud Institute
Investigative Operations Division

(912) 280-5423

George.Hurst@dhs.gov

Homeland
Security

Federal Law Enforcement
Training Center