

BIOGRAPHY

Tonie Jones

Tonie Jones is the Inspector General of the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) providing overall direction to the auditors and contracted staff responsible for improving the programs and operations of NEA. Ms. Jones joined the NEA Office of Inspector General in 2008.

Ms. Jones has over 25 years of Federal service with various agencies including several years in the OIG community. Most of her career has involved providing oversight of Federal agencies' programs and operations. She is a member of the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) as a Certified Internal Auditor and a Certified Government Auditing Professional. She is also a Certified Inspector General and a newly-appointed Board member of the Association of Inspectors General. She received her Masters of Organizational Leadership from Nyack College, NY and her B.S. in Business Management with a focus on Accounting from University of Maryland University College. Ms. Jones also volunteers with several faith-based organizations to provide education and job opportunities to disadvantage and underserved communities in the Washington DC area.