

NORMAND V. LUSSIER
Associate General Counsel (Contracting Integrity)
Defense Logistics Agency

Normand V. Lussier manages the DLA fraud program and exercises overall responsibility for fourteen field activity fraud attorneys. He also provides oversight of contractor ethics and compliance programs. He is the counsel to the Special Assistant for Contracting Integrity who acts as the Suspension and Debarment Official for the agency.

Mr. Lussier's entire civilian career as an attorney has been in support of the Department of Defense. He has experience in contracting, litigation and the assessment of contractor ethics and compliance programs. After admission to the California Bar in 1972, he joined the Navy's Office of General Counsel as a civilian attorney in the Naval Supply Systems Command where he was assigned to the Office of Counsel. In 1974, after serving as an assistant counsel at the Naval Regional Procurement Office in the Washington Navy Yard, he was assigned to Naples, Italy, where he served as Counsel, Naval Regional Procurement Office. During his Naples assignment, he also handled the theater legal work for Atlantic Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command and the Military Sealift Command. In 1980, he was assigned as Counsel, Naval Regional Contracting Center in the Washington Navy Yard. In 1985, he was appointed General Counsel, American Forces Information Service, a field activity of the Office of the Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs). In 1992, he joined DLA's Office of General Counsel as an Associate General Counsel working in the area of suspension and debarment.

Mr. Lussier graduated from Oroville High School in 1962 and enlisted in the Navy. Upon release from active duty, he remained in the Navy Reserve. He received a direct commission in 1972 as an Ensign (Special Duty, Intelligence). He retired from the Navy Reserve in 2002 as a Captain.

He attended San Diego State University, graduating in 1969 with a Bachelor of Arts degree with distinction in History. In 1972, he received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of California Hastings College of the Law where he served on the Hastings Law Review. He is admitted to the California Bar.

Mr. Lussier is married to the former Peggy Winters of Long Beach, California. They have two grown sons, Damon and Aaron, and three grandchildren, twin girls, Molly and Lacey and their sister, Sally.