

Mr. John M. Kamensky

Senior Fellow

IBM Center for The Business of Government

Mr. Kamensky is a Senior Fellow with the IBM Center for The Business of Government in Washington, DC, which sponsors research on management challenges facing government leaders.

During 24 years of public service, he had a significant role in helping pioneer the U.S. federal government's performance and results orientation. He is passionate about creating a government that is results-oriented, performance-based, customer-focused, and collaborative in nature. Prior to 2001, Mr. Kamensky served for eight years as deputy director of Vice President Gore's National Partnership for Reinventing Government. Before that, he worked at the U.S. Government Accountability Office for 16 years where he played a key role in the development and passage of the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993.

During his time with the IBM Center, he has edited or co-authored eight books and writes and speaks extensively on leadership, performance management, collaborative governance, and government reform.

Mr. Kamensky is a fellow of the National Academy of Public Administration and a senior fellow with the Administrative Conference of the United States.

He received a Masters in Public Affairs from the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at the University of Texas at Austin, and a Bachelors of Arts in Government at Angelo State University, in San Angelo, Texas.
