Excepted Position Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20010249A

OPEN: 09/04/2001

CLOSE: 11/01/2001

THIS VACANCY IS AMENDED TO CHANGE THE CLOSING DATE FROM 10/04/2001

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

POSITION VACANT: Psychologist (Program Director), AD-180-4. Annual salary ranges from $74,697 to $116,414.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Psychologist (Program Director), AD-180-4.

LOCATION: Directorate for Social, Behavioral and Economic Sciences, Division of Behavioral and Cognitive Sciences, Developmental and Learning Sciences Program, Arlington, VA.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The incumbent assumes a position as Program Director in the Division of Behavioral and Cognitive Sciences, Developmental and Learning Sciences Program, and is responsible for long-range planning and budget development for the areas of science represented by the program or program cluster, the administration of the merit review process and proposal recommendations, the preparation of press releases, feature articles and material describing advances in the research supported, and coordination and liaison with other programs in the National Science Foundation (NSF), other Federal agencies and organizations. Specifically, the incumbent will:

- Manage program resources so as to provide optimal appropriate scientific judgment to ensure integrity and consistency in the grant/declination process without conflicts-of-interest, and with balance among appropriate sub-fields and institutions, and participation of all qualified scientists. Incorporate cross-directorate responsibilities into program administration.

- Manage an effective, timely merit review process, with attention to increasing the size and quality of the reviewer pools and ensuring participation by women, minorities and disabled scientists.
- Represent the Program, Division and Foundation within the scientific community, with other NSF Divisions, with other appropriate agencies and organizations, and with the public, accurately reflecting NSF policy and positions.
- Present and disseminate a variety of informational documents which may include data on progress being made toward NSF's goals, trends and opportunities papers, and budget plans.
- Provide scientific expertise, evaluation and advice for other programs in NSF, including international programs, other research programs, and cross-directorate programs.
- Pursue and/or be responsive to assignment on special projects and temporary functional teams from across the Foundation to resolve problems, improve staff communication, and effect coordination for special programs.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in psychology, plus six or more years of research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

- Knowledge and understanding of scientific principles and theories that underlie the cognitive, social, and biological processes related to children and adolescents' learning in both formal and informal settings.
- Research, analytical and technical writing skills, which evidence the ability to perform extensive inquiries into a wide variety of significant issues and to make recommendations and decisions, based on findings.
- Ability to organize, implement and manage large, multi-disciplinary, broadly based, proposal driven grant programs allocating resources to meet a broad spectrum of program goals.
- Ability to meet and deal with members of the scientific community, other funding agencies and peers to effectively present and advocate program policies and plans.
- Ability to work with individuals within the Cluster, both technical and support staff.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s).
