

National Science Foundation

Rotational Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20020165-Rotator

OPEN: 09/12/2002

CLOSE: Until Filled

POSITIONS WILL BE FILLED ON A ONE OR TWO YEAR VISITING SCIENTIST, TEMPORARY BASIS OR INTERGOVERNMENTAL PERSONNEL ACT (IPA) BASIS.

Individuals wishing to apply to the permanent position see vacancy announcement number E20020164.

The National Science Foundation is seeking a qualified candidate to be filled in the Research Resources Cluster, Division of Biological Infrastructure (DBI), Directorate for Biological Sciences (BIO), Arlington, VA. Selected candidate will be filled as a Biological Science Administrator (Program Director), AD-0401-4. DBI supports varied activities that provide the infrastructure for contemporary research in biology. These include instrument-related activities, research resources, and training opportunities.

The Position will be filled on a one or two year Visiting Scientist Appointment, Temporary Appointment or under the terms of the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA). Temporary and Visiting Scientist appointments will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. For temporary appointments of more than one year, the usual civil service benefits (retirement, health and life insurance) are applicable. For Visiting Scientist appointments, individuals are in a non-pay leave status from the home institution and are appointed to NSF's payroll as a Federal employee. NSF withholds Social Security and provides reimbursement for fringe benefits. For IPA assignments, the individual remains on the payroll of his/her institution and the institution continues to administer pay and benefits. NSF reimburses the institution for NSF's negotiated share of the costs. Individuals eligible for an IPA assignment include employees of State and local government agencies, institutions of higher education, Indian tribal governments, federally funded research and development centers and qualified nonprofit organizations. The individual remains an employee of the home institution.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The incumbent will serve as Program Director for newly streamlined activities and anticipated emerging areas in DBI, including NSF-wide initiative areas such as the Nanoscience and Technology Program, and the BIO-wide integrative activities including the Research Coordination Networks and the Frontiers in Integrative Biology. The incumbent of this position is responsible for the planning and administration of the Program within the framework of legislation, agency policies, missions, objectives and resources and serves as spokesperson for the Program with regard to the scientific community. The incumbent is responsible for the planning, coordination and management of instrumentation, its development, facilities, and other scientific activities primarily through Federal grants and contracts to academic institutions, non-profit, non-academic institutions (professional organizations and the private sector). Other duties and responsibilities include the following:

- Encourages and supports integrative research in emerging areas of biological sciences through communicating the opportunities to the broad scientific community and the evaluation of proposals.
- Ensures broadening participation and increasing involvement of under-represented groups in program activities.
- Processes recommended grant applications and declinations, contacting successful applicants prior to the award of the grant and unsuccessful applicants as necessary.
- Follows the progress of research of grantees through site visits, progress and fiscal reports, and correspondence. Efforts are made to provide assistance to investigators whenever possible.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in a field of biology plus six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience beyond the Ph.D. are required. Quantitative biology or systems biology research experience is especially desirable. Familiarity with the NSF policies and practices will be highly desirable as well.

HOW TO APPLY: The salary range is from $78,265 to $121,967 per annum depending on qualifications and experience. Individuals interested in applying for this vacancy should submit a resume or any application of your choice to the National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, 4201 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22230, Attn: E20020165-Rotator. In addition you are asked to complete and submit the attached Applicant Survey form. Submission of this form is voluntary and will not affect your application for employment (the information is used for statistical purposes). Telephone inquiries may be referred to Maria Sutton, at (703) 292-4364. For technical information, contact Dr. Machi Dilworth, Division Director, at (703) 292-8470. Hearing impaired individuals may call TDD (703) 292-8044. Announcements may be accessed electronically on the World Wide Web at www.nsf.gov/jobs.

The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.
