LOCATION: Directorate for Social, Behavioral and Economic Sciences, Division of Social and Economic Sciences, Decision, Risk and Management Science, Arlington, VA.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Program Directors manage the review of proposals submitted to NSF, recommend and document actions on the proposals reviewed, deal with administrative matters relating to active NSF grants, maintain regular contact with the research community, and provide advice and consultation upon request. Program Directors also engage in NSF-wide initiatives and interagency collaborations. The responsibilities of the Program Director include, for example, long-range planning and budget development for the areas of science represented by the program or program cluster, the administration of the merit review process and proposal recommendations, the preparation of press releases, feature articles and material describing advances in the research supported and coordination and liaison with other programs in NSF, other Federal agencies and organizations.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED:

Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in a relevant Social or Behavioral Science plus six or more years of research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Broad Knowledge and understanding of scientific principles and theories applicable to relevant Social and/or Behavioral Sciences.
2. Research, analytical writing skills which evidence the ability to make sound scholarly judgments, master a wide variety of theoretical and methodological approaches to research and explain in writing recommendations and decisions based on findings.
3. Ability to organize, implement and manage a proposal-driven grant program allocating resources to meet a broad spectrum of program goals.
4. Ability to cooperate and work effectively with peers in other scientific disciplines on joint ventures and to present and advocate program plans and policies to individuals in the Foundation, other government agencies and academic institutions
5. Comprehensive knowledge and understanding of the budget processes including developing, planning and budget formulation, presentation and execution or evidence of a capacity to quickly acquire and competently apply such information.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
