THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

POSITION VACANT: Science Education Analyst (Assistant Program Director), AD-1701-2. Salary ranges from $48,451 to $89,774 per annum.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Science Education Analyst, AD-1701-2

LOCATION: Directorate for Education and Human Resources, Mathematics and Science Partnership (MSP) Program, Arlington, VA

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All sources.

This position is outside the competitive civil service. Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates currently in the competitive civil service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to the final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The Science Education Analyst conducts analyses of the programs over all management. The incumbent is expected to make judgments that demonstrate comprehension of science and mathematics education. The incumbent of this position will perform the following duties:

- Analyzes characteristics of supported projects with respect to Special Program Data Elements, principal investigator demographics, funding by project characteristic.
- Assists in administering an effective, timely merit review process for proposals received.
- Assists in insuring integrity, consistency, and appropriate quarterly control in the grant/declination process.
- Responsible for coordination of Division outreach to the field, including materials development and displays for NSF outreach booths at professional meetings.
- Participates with senior staff in the development of short-and long-range plans, establishing objectives for the program and program evaluation.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. in science, and/or mathematics, and/or education; OR a Master's Degree in science, and/or mathematics, and/or education, plus two or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or education or managerial experience pertinent to this position; OR equivalent experience.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

- Demonstrated knowledge of K-12 science and mathematics education issues, as well as the roles of federal and other major stakeholders in K-12 science and mathematics education.
- Skill in written and oral communications, with a demonstrated ability to develop concise and persuasive written materials related to K-12 science and mathematics education for presentation in varied venues e.g. press, professional journals, websites.
- Demonstrated work experience in science or mathematics discipline, science and mathematics education, and/or related fields.
- Skill in working with microcomputers, and database management systems.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education, and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills, and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period is required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must submit a current Performance Appraisal or letters of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities.
