Excepted Position Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NO: E20040100

OPEN: 08/02/04

CLOSE: 08/31/04

THIS IS A PERMANENT POSITION.

POSITION VACANT: Project Manager, AD-0301-2. Annual salary ranges from $50,593 to $93,742.

LOCATION: Directorate for Mathematical and Physical Sciences, Division of Astronomical Sciences, Arlington, VA.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources.

RELOCATION: Expenses will not be paid.

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: This position is located in the Directorate for Mathematical and Physical Sciences, Division of Astronomical Sciences. The Division of Astronomical Sciences (AST) is the primary source of support for ground-based astronomy in the United States. AST supports the development and operation of four National Astronomy facilities: the National Optical Astronomy Observatory (NOAO), the National Solar Observatory (NSO), the National Radio Astronomy Observatory (NRAO), and the National Astronomy and Ionosphere Center (NAIC) and provides the U.S. share of funding for the operation of the Gemini Observatory and serves as the executive agency for the international Partnership. AST supports individual investigators and small groups engaged in a broad array of observational, theoretical, and laboratory research aimed at understanding the states of matter and physical processes in the Solar System, our galaxy and the universe. Division programs also support the development of advanced technologies and instrumentation and the planning and design for future observational facilities and major collaborative and interagency projects in astronomy.

The person selected for this position will be responsible for oversight and management of the Division's financial, personnel, and administrative operation and will observe as a key non-scientific member of the Astronomy Division's management team. A primary responsibility is to monitor and analyze financial and administrative project management in facilities and large projects supported by the Division, working with AST management on the analysis of program and projected plans. The individual serves as Executive Assistant to program officers responsible for major projects such as the Gemini Observatory and the ALMA project. The person will also be responsible for developing budget formulations and projections and overseeing the administrative actions on the Division's grants and cooperative agreements and serve as head of the Administrative Unit within the Division and supervise the administrative staff consisting of administrative, technical, support positions. While others in the Division may have responsibility for some administrative matters, the incumbent is responsible for coordinating and integrating all the Division's administrative components.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Astronomy, Astrophysics, or Physics; OR a Masters degree in the areas previously mentioned plus two or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position; or equivalent experience.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Broad knowledge and understanding of the scientific principles of research applicable to Physical Sciences in general.
2. Knowledge of scientific research and educational programs sufficient to understand the rationale for priorities, importance of developing areas, relations to other fields, and potential for contribution to achievement of national goals.
3. Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing, in order to present information accurately and effectively in order to serve as liaison both within and outside agency.
4. Advanced analytical abilities, and the capacity to synthesize multiple sources of information and develop original methods and solutions.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement, which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.
