

NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER S20050053A-IPA DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING (OISE)

The National Science Foundation is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Director, Office of International Science and Engineering (OISE), Office of the Director. In addition to seeking candidates who are interested in an appointment on a Senior Executive Service career basis (S20050053A-C) or limited term basis (S20050053A-LTD), NSF is also inviting individuals who might be interested in an Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA) assignment to submit an application. A statement of duties of the position and qualification requirements is included below.

Initial assignments under the IPA mechanism may be made for a period of up to two years. Individuals eligible for an IPA assignment with a Federal agency include employees of State and local government agencies or institutions of higher education, Indian tribal governments, and other eligible organizations in instances where such assignments would be of mutual benefit to the organizations involved. The individual remains an employee of the home institution and cost-sharing arrangements are generally negotiated between NSF and the home institution. Individuals interested in an IPA assignment should submit curriculum vitae or Federal application form and a letter referencing qualifications to the following address:

The closing deadline for receipt of applications is May 20, 2005.

Applications may be transmitted electronically to execsrch@nsf.gov, mailed or delivered to the following address: National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, Executive Personnel, Room 315, ATTN: S20050053A-IPA, 4201 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22230. The phone number for vacancy announcements coordinated by the Executive Personnel Staff is (703) 292-8755; hearing-impaired individuals should call TDD on 703-292-8044. Persons interested in the Senior Executive Service appointment options should request copies of announcements S20050053A-C and S20050053A-LTD for additional information and application instructions. Announcements may be accessed electronically under Vacancies on NSF's Homepage http://www.nsf.gov/about/career\_opps/. Information on the NSF mission, structure, programs and operations may be found at <http://www.nsf.gov/>. The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact located on this vacancy announcement.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: The National Science Foundation (NSF) seeks a dynamic, visionary leader for its Office of International Science and Engineering (OISE). The OISE Director assists NSF leadership in the development and implementation of creative strategies that realize the full potential of the international dimensions of NSF investments in science and engineering research and education. The incumbent plays a leadership role in the development of NSF international science and engineering programs and policies and ensures their consistency with U.S. foreign policy objectives, national security concerns, and the NSF Strategic Plan.

The OISE Director, assisted by an able and motivated OISE staff, is responsible for the coordination and integration of international science and engineering programs throughout NSF, and facilitates NSF participation in and/or support of multilateral science and engineering organizations. The Office of International Science and Engineering plans, prioritizes and manages programs and activities that are responsive to promising opportunities presented by the global science and engineering enterprise. OISE coordinates its work, as appropriate, with the Department of State, the Office of Science and Technology Policy, other U.S. government technical and national security and foreign affairs agencies and foreign and international science and engineering organizations.
