POSITION VACANT: Arctic Research Support & Logistics Manager, AD-4. Annual salary ranges from $91,407 to $142,449. This is an interdisciplinary position and may be filled in any one of the following: Biology 401, Engineering 801, Atmospheric Physics 1310, Geophysics 1313, Geology 1350 or Oceanography 1360.

PROMOTION POTENTIAL: Arctic Research Support & Logistics Manager, AD-4.

LOCATION: Office of the Director, Division of Polar Programs, Arlington, VA.

RELOCATION: Expenses will be paid.

BARGAINING UNIT STATUS: This position is included in the bargaining unit and will be filled in accordance with the merit staffing provisions of the Collective Bargaining Agreement Article VIII.

AREA OF CONSIDERATION: All Sources

THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, and life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The person selected for this position is responsible for providing leadership in developing and implementing policy and direction for NSF arctic logistics and science support activities. This involves continuing interactions with participating scientists, support contractors, and program managers in the Office of Polar Programs (OPP), other NSF directorates, federal and state agencies, and other countries. Close cooperation with OPP staff responsible for Antarctic logistics and science support is essential. Additional duties include developing annual and long-range plans that balance logistics, science, and budget needs.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience. This is an interdisciplinary position and may be filled in any one of the following: Biology 401, Engineering 801, Atmospheric Physics 1310, Geophysics 1313, Geology 1350 or Oceanography 1360, plus six or more years of research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the position.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:

1. Ability to develop and manage a program that uses grant, contract and other agreement mechanisms to bring to bare a broad spectrum of resources needed to support a world-class research program.
2. Knowledge of management and organizational concepts, principles, and techniques needed to plan and manage large and complex infrastructure and logistics.
3. Knowledge of logistics principles and techniques for a wide variety of specialized functions (e.g. project management, procurement, transportation including marine and aviation, operations & maintenance facilities, construction, inventory and property management) with applicability to remote areas.
4. Demonstrated ability to work with program representatives from government and international agencies, professional societies, and the science community in general to develop logistics and infrastructure that is responsive to community needs.
5. Demonstrated ability and experience in providing optimized field support in an operating environment that is constrained by budget, environmental policy compliance and human health and safety matters.
6. Demonstrated ability to represent an organization in a variety of forums and to be able to effectively articulate program requirements and advocate for the resources needed to advance programs.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. ♦ Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. ♦ Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. ♦ If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held. ♦ The brochure Applying for a Federal Job provides information on the Federal job application process; it is available by calling the number listed below. If your application does not provide all the information requested in the vacancy announcement, you may lose consideration for this job.

The National Science Foundation provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities on a case-by-case basis. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the point of contact listed on this vacancy announcement.
