THIS POSITION IS OUTSIDE THE COMPETITIVE CIVIL SERVICE

Appointment to this position will be made under the Excepted Authority of the NSF Act. Candidates who do not have civil service status or reinstatement eligibility will not obtain civil service status if selected. Candidates currently in the competitive service will be required to waive competitive civil service rights if selected. Usual civil service benefits (retirement, health benefits, and life insurance) are applicable for appointments of more than one year. Disabled veterans with 30% service-connected disabilities as well as other applicants with severe disabilities will be considered without regard to the closing date if applications are received prior to final selection.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: The Office of Polar Program (OPP), provides funding and logistics support for all research where the Polar Regions offer special opportunities to advance research frontiers, manages the US Antarctic Program, and coordinates inter-agency federal research in the Arctic through the Interagency Arctic Research Policy Committee (IARPC): include representing the Office on interagency working groups and advising on Congressional interests involving polar research activities and policies; administering the Interagency Arctic Research Policy Committee, serving as Executive Director; coordinating the development of research agendas among member agencies; coordinating OPP involvement in NSF-wide research and education activities; administering international agreements between the National Science Foundation and other countries in conjunction with the Office of International Science and Engineering.
QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in one of the following disciplines: Engineering 801, Biology 401, Physical Science 1301, Geology 1350, Geophysics 1313, Atmospheric Physics 1310, Social Science (101), or Oceanography 1360. In addition, six or more years of successful research, research administration, and/or managerial experience pertinent to the program is required.

BASIS FOR RATING: Final ranking is based on an evaluation of your experience, education and training as they relate to the knowledge, skills and abilities specified in the Quality Ranking Factors. Current performance appraisal, letter(s) of recommendation, and awards may also be used in the evaluation process.

QUALITY RANKING FACTORS:
Final ranking is based upon job-related experience, training, education, awards, performance appraisals or letters of recommendation, and the following knowledge, skills and abilities.

1. Knowledge and understanding of scientific principles and theories applicable to your area of discipline or specialty, as demonstrated by publications, invited talks, and/or professional recognition.

2. Ability to recognize and formulate programmatic plans that respond to emerging areas of research in your area of discipline or specialty that require the special conditions present in the polar regions.

3. Skill in the evaluation of research and education activities for a multidisciplinary program. Ability to organize, implement, and manage an externally reviewed proposal-driven grants program, allocating resources to meet a spectrum of program goals.

4. Professional analytical and technical writing skills which evidence experience in presentation of extensive inquiry into a wide variety of significant issues and make recommendations and decisions based on findings.

5. Thorough knowledge of the NSF role in federal support of scientific research and of NSF processes.

6. Ability to interact effectively with members of the scientific community, representatives of other federal agencies, representatives of foreign national Antarctic programs, and peers to effectively present, advocate, and advance program policies, plans, and goals.

7. Ability to manage and coordinate the planning and implementation of complex projects in remote regions, and the ability to deal effectively with all U.S. Antarctic Program projects that rely on support at South Pole Station.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT: Appointment to the position is contingent upon successful completion of the appropriate background investigation. Satisfactory completion of a one-year trial period may also be required.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply for this position with the Optional Application for Federal Employment (OF-612), the older Application for Federal Employment (SF-171), a resume, or other application format of your choice - so long as it contains the necessary information (summarized below). You must also submit a current Performance Appraisal or letter(s) of recommendation from professionals who can comment on your capabilities. In order to ensure full consideration, it is recommended that you submit a supplemental statement which specifically addresses how your background and experience relate to each Quality Ranking Factor listed on this announcement.

You must specify the job announcement number, and title and grade(s) of the job for which you are applying. You should also provide the following information: ♦ Your country of citizenship. ♦ Your social security number. Information about your education, including (1) high school graduation date and (2) college/university information - your major, and type and year of degree(s). If no degree, show total credits earned and indicate whether they are semester or quarter hours. Information about all your work experience related to this job, including job titles, duties and accomplishments, employer's name and phone number, number of hours worked per week, starting and ending dates (month and year), and annual salary. If you held various positions with the same employer, describe each separately. If you have Federal civilian experience, indicate the highest grade held, the job series, and dates held.
