

Stanley Presser (Ph.D., University of Michigan) teaches in the Sociology Department and the Joint Program in Survey Methodology at the University of Maryland. He is interested in the interface between social psychology and survey measurement. His research focuses on questionnaire design and testing, the accuracy of survey responses, nonresponse, and ethical issues stemming from the use of human subjects. His books include Questions and Answers in Attitude Surveys (with Howard Schuman), Survey Questions (with Jean Converse), and Survey Research Methods (with Eleanor Singer).
