SECTION C: GOODS, SERVICES, AND BUSINESS PROCESSES

The following section collects information on this business’s introduction of new or improved goods, services, or business processes that differed significantly from this business’s previous goods, services, or processes.

The goods, services, or business processes must have characteristics or intended uses that are new or which provide a significant improvement over what was previously used or sold by this business. However, they can fail or take time to prove themselves.

The goods, services, or business processes need only be new or improved for this business. They could have been originally developed or used by other businesses or organizations.

The following section asks about the 2017 to 2019 time period, instead of one year as in other sections of this survey.

C.1 New or Improved Goods

During the three years 2017 to 2019, did this business introduce to the market any new or improved goods that differed significantly from this business’s previous goods? (This includes the addition of new functions or improvements to existing functions or user utility. Functions include quality, technical specifications, reliability, durability, economic efficiency during use, affordability, convenience, usability, and user friendliness. User utility includes attributes such as affordability and financial convenience.)

Thank you for completing the 2020 Annual Business Survey form.

Definitions*Affiliated (company or business):

An entity that is owned 10 percent or more (based on voting interest or an equivalent interest) directly or indirectly by your company.

Business processes:

Business process includes the following: (1) methods for producing goods or providing services; (2) distribution and logistics; (3) marketing and sales; (4) information and communication systems; (5) administration and management activities; and (6) product and business process development (including activities to identify, develop or adapt products or a firm's processes).

Core production activity:

This term refers to your primary business activities. For manufacturing companies, core production typically involves production of physical goods. For service companies and other companies, core production refers to the main services or activities provided by your business such as Information and Communication Technology services, marketing services, etc.

Domestic (or U.S.-located):

Refers to a location in any of the U.S. 50 states and the District of Columbia.

Exported goods:

Value of goods including the value of equipment, supplies, materials, etc. This should equal the amounts reported in the Automated Export System's (AES) Electronic Export Information (EEI) filed with U.S. Customs and Border Protection plus the cost of transporting the goods to customers located in foreign destinations (i.e., outside the United States).

Exported services:

An exported service is a service-related product (i.e., services performed, including digital service, license agreement) that is sold or transferred to, or performed for customers (individual, government, business establishment, etc.) located in foreign destinations (i.e., outside the United States).

Foreign affiliate:

A foreign affiliate is an entity located outside the United States that is owned at least 10% (based on voting interest or an equivalent interest) directly or indirectly by the U.S. reporter.

Foreign parent (of a U.S.-located business):

The first entity outside the United States in an affiliate's ownership chain that has a direct or indirect investment interest of more than 50 percent of the affiliate's voting securities.

Goods:

Usually a tangible object such as a smartphone, furniture, or packaged software, but also includes digital goods such as downloadable software, music and film. (Exclude the simple resale of new goods and changes of a solely aesthetic nature.)

Imported goods:

The value of goods purchased from customers located in foreign destinations (i.e., outside the United States) as indicated in import declarations filed with the U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

Imported services:

An imported service is a service-related product (i.e., service performed, including digital service, license agreement) that is purchased from customers located in foreign destinations (i.e., outside the United States).

Intellectual property:

Includes patents, processes, and trade secrets; books and music; trademarks; recorded performances and events such as radio and television programs and motion pictures; broadcast and recorded live performances and events and their content; general use computer software; franchise fees; and other (for example, digital media).

Definitions - continued*Research and Development (R&D):

Research and development (R&D) comprise creative and systematic work undertaken in order to increase the stock of knowledge and to devise new applications of available knowledge.

The term R&D does NOT include expenditures for:

- Costs for routine product testing, quality control, and technical services unless they are an integral part of an R&D project
- Market research
- Efficiency surveys or management studies
- Literary, artistic, or historical projects, such as films, music, or books and other publications
- Prospecting or exploration for natural resources

R&D activity in software INCLUDES:

- Software development or improvement activities that expand scientific or technological knowledge
- Construction of new theories and algorithms in the field of computer science

R&D activity in software EXCLUDES:

- Software development that does not depend on a scientific or technological advance, such as
  - supporting or adapting existing systems
  - adding functionality to existing application programs, and
  - routine debugging of existing systems and software
- Creation of new software based on known methods and applications
- Conversion or translation of existing software and software languages
- Adaptation of a product to a specific client, unless knowledge that significantly improved the base program was added in that process

Services:

Intangible activities, such as retailing, insurance, educational courses, air travel, consulting, etc., also includes digital services. (Exclude the simple resale of new services.)

Services are intangible activities that are produced and consumed simultaneously and that change the conditions (i.e., physical, psychological, etc.) of users.

Services are the result of a production activity that changes the conditions of the consuming units or facilitates the exchange of products or financial assets. They cannot be traded separately from their production. Services can also include some knowledge-capturing products.

Unaffiliated (company or business):

Entity that is owned less than 10 percent, directly or indirectly, by your company (i.e., independent contractors and suppliers).
