Dear Colleague,

This document provides a worksheet and instructions to help you compile your answers to the NSF-NIH Survey of Graduate Students and Postdoctorates in Science and Engineering (GSS). It is intended as an aid for use with the GSS Web survey. Please read page 2 for more information about preparing and submitting your information.

RTI International, the survey contractor for the GSS, provided the 2008 GSS survey materials to the individual selected as the coordinator for your school. Your school coordinator is responsible for monitoring your institution's responses to the survey and will be in touch with you about completing and submitting your survey response to NSF. Responses are due on February 27, 2009.

The GSS, conducted since 1966, is an annual survey that provides information on the training of the future labor force in the science, engineering, and health fields. Your timely response helps us minimize the cost of follow-ups and ensures that we accurately represent your institution in national statistical tables.

We appreciate the time and effort you devote to providing this important information.

If you have questions, please e-mail RTI at gss@rti.org or call RTI at 1-866-558-0781. Please submit the information on this worksheet via the Web survey at <http://www.gss2008.org>.

Sincerely,

Lynda T. Carlson, PhD
Director
Division of Science Resources Statistics
National Science Foundation

Jennifer Sutton
Research Training Coordinator

Glossary

For terms used in the GSS, please refer to the Glossary starting on page 8.

Hovering the mouse pointer over the term will automatically bring up the definition on the Web survey.

Changes in the 2008 GSS

New Format

- Layout changed from landscape to portrait to simplify completing the form
- Reporting of part time and full time separated into two questions
- Row and column headings switched
- Categories added for males

Wording Changes and Clarifications

- First-time students (Question 3) This definition was revised slightly: Those students enrolled for credit in a graduate-degree program in this organizational unit for the first time in fall 2008. This may include graduate students previously enrolled in another graduate degree program at your institution or at another institution. It may also include students that already hold another graduate or professional degree.
- Non-U.S. citizens (Questions 2–4) A clarification was made for online programs: Exclude non-U.S. citizens who reside outside the U.S. and are enrolled in an online degree program at your U.S. institution.
- Students doing thesis or dissertation research (Questions 2–4) Students doing thesis or dissertation research away from a U.S. campus, previously excluded, are now included: Count all students enrolled in a U.S. institution for credit in a graduate degree program doing thesis or dissertation research work regardless of their location.

Hispanic/Latino (Questions 2, 3)

Count any student who is Hispanic/Latino or Hispanic/Latino and any other race in Row B. In the past, there were separate rows for students who were "Hispanic/Latino, one race only" and students who were "Hispanic/Latino, more than one race."

NIH teaching assistantships (Question 4)

Question 4, Row B, Column 4, is blacked out because NIH does not offer teaching assistantships.

Important

- Report clinical psychology separately from all other psychology department or programs
- Report computer science separately from mathematics
- Report each engineering field (e.g., electrical engineering, mechanical engineering) separately

Please contact your school coordinator if you think more organizational units should be specified for your survey response. The school coordinator will adjust the Web survey accordingly.
