THE NATIONAL TRAINING, EDUCATION, AND WORKFORCE SURVEY

INSTRUCTIONS

People can participate in different types of education and training. Sometimes education and training programs result in a credential. High school diplomas and college degrees are types of credentials. Other types of credentials include vocational certificates, professional certifications, and licenses. This survey asks about your education and if you have any of these credentials. The survey also asks about your job. We want to hear from you even if you do not have a job.

• Directions for completing the survey are provided with each question.

• Follow all appropriate skip instructions after marking a box. If no skip instruction is provided, you should continue to the next question.

• If you have any questions or concerns, please email us at nnews@census.gov or call us toll-free at 1-888-329-5903.

We really appreciate your help.

The information in this questionnaire is collected under the authority of the National Science Foundation (NSF) Act of 1950, as amended, the America COMPETES Reauthorization Act of 2010, and the Education Sciences Reform Act of 2002. The U.S. Census Bureau is conducting this survey under the authority of Title 13, Section 8 of the United States Code. The Census Bureau is required by law to keep your information confidential and can use your responses for statistical purposes only. The Census Bureau is not permitted to publicly release your responses in a way that could identify you. Federal law protects your privacy and keeps your answers confidential (Title 13, United States Code, Section 9). Per the Federal Cybersecurity Enhancement Act of 2015, your data are protected from cybersecurity risks through screening of the systems that transmit your data. Your response is voluntary, and failure to provide some or all of the requested information will not in any way adversely affect you. Actual time to complete the questionnaire may vary depending on your circumstances but on average, it will take about 15 minutes. If you have any comments on the time required for this survey, please send them to the Reports Clearance Officer, Office of the General Counsel, National Science Foundation, 2415 Eisenhower Ave., Alexandria, VA 22314.
